

AZSTA Remembers Robert Brinton

Robert Brinton was a visionary, a community leader and a friend to countless people throughout our state.

Robert was also a member of the Arizona Sports and Tourism Authority Board, serving as our board secretary this year, as well as chair of our Cactus League subcommittee. Robert brought tremendous leadership to our state through Cactus League and tourism, but he was also a game changer for our organization.

A true collaborator, Robert was key in bringing together leaders in professional sports, tourism, politics and youth and amateur sports. He lead efforts to bring all parties together for the benefit of our state. He did this because it was important. Because it made a difference to our state. Because Arizona needed him.

And we feel the same about Robert – he was important, he made a huge impact on Arizona and Arizona will miss him greatly.

On behalf of the AzSTA Board, we send condolences to his family and friends and share in the loss of this special leader. Robert will be remembered for so many contributions to our state – and he will be missed for his warm, wonderful and nurturing nature.
