

World of Wheels Opens Friday

GLENDALE, Ariz. (Jan. 10, 2007) -- The 38th annual World of Wheels Autorama opens this Friday at the University of Phoenix Stadium for the first time. The event is the state's largest and oldest annual indoor automotive show featuring 500 customized cars, trucks, vans, motorcycles and classic vehicles along with celebrity appearances.

The show runs from 3-10 p.m. Friday, 11 a.m.-10 p.m. Saturday and 11 a.m.-7 p.m. Sunday.

Tickets are $14 for adults, $5 for children ages 6 to 12 at the door or in advance, $12 for adults, $4 for children at all Checker Auto Parts stores. Ample free parking is available at the stadium located at the Loop 101 and Bethany Home Road in Glendale.

The famous Dodge Charger, "General Lee", from the "Dukes of Hazzard" television show will be appearing at the show all weekend.

Some of the celebrities scheduled for the show are:

Ben Jones, "Cooter" from The Dukes of Hazzard, with the General Lee, all weekend.

AJ Janic and Chris Jacobs from TV's Overhaulin, 1-4 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. Saturday.

Del Worsham, National Hot Rod Association star, 2-4 p.m. Saturday, noon-4 p.m. Sunday.

Michele Smith from TV's American Thunder, 1-4 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. Saturday.

Go to www.autorama.com for more information.